FLORIDA RESIDENCY DEFINITIONS

A FL, GA, AL "resident for tuition purposes" is an independent person who has, or a dependent person whose parent or legal guardian has, established and maintained legal residence in Florida for at least twelve (12) months. Residency in Florida must be for the purpose of establishing a permanent legal residence and not merely to just attend school at an institution of higher education. To qualify as Florida resident for tuition purposes, you must be a U.S. citizen, permanent resident alien, or legal alien granted indefinite stay by the Bureau of Citizenship and Immigration Services. Other persons not meeting the twelve (12) month legal residence requirement may be classified as Florida residents for tuition purposes only, if they fall within one of the limited special categories authorized by the Florida Legislature and Florida Board of Education for exemption. All other persons are ineligible for classification as a "Florida Resident for Tuition Purposes."

Documents supporting the establishment of legal residence in Florida must be dated, issued, or filed 12 months prior to the first day of classes of the term for which an in-state classification is sought.

Who may be eligible to establish Florida residency for tuition purposes?

- U.S. citizens, permanent resident aliens, and certain Visa categories
- Independent persons (not claimed by anyone other than themselves for Federal Income Tax purposes), who have resided, and been employed in a permanent, full-time position, in Florida for the last 12 months or more.
- Either parent or legal guardian of a dependent child. Federal Income Tax documents will be required to prove dependency. The term "dependent child" means any person, whether or not living with his/her parent or legal guardian, who is eligible to be claimed by his/her parent or legal guardian as a dependent under the Federal Income Tax and who receives more than 50% of the true cost of living expenses from his/her parent or legal guardian.

Who is not eligible to establish Florida residency for tuition purposes?

- Students who are dependent on out-of-state parents (claimed on the parent(s) Federal Income Tax form).
- Students who moved to the State of Florida for the sole purpose of attending an institution of higher education.
- Students who claim independence but cannot document independence.
- Certain Visa categories.

Who is exempt from establishing Florida residency for tuition purposes?

- Students who are exempt from paying fees (DCF, homeless waivers) are exempt from providing proof of residency F.S. 1009.25(2)(c)(d) and (f). Attach proof of exemption.
- Students paying with Florida Prepaid College Program. Each qualified beneficiary shall be classified as resident for tuition purposes, regardless of his or her actual legal residence. F.S. 1009.98(a)1. Attach copy of FL Prepaid card.
- Out-of-state fee waiver for honorably discharged veterans of the U.S. Armed Forces, U.S. Reserve Forces, or the National Guard, who reside in the state while enrolled at a state university, FCS institution, career center operated by a school district under s. 1001.44, or charter technical center. F.S. 1009.26. Attach copy of DD214.

NON-FLORIDA RESIDENTS ONLY

I understand that I do not qualify as a Florida resident for tuition purposes for the term for which this application is submitted and that if I should qualify for some future term it will be necessary for me to file the required documentation prior to the beginning of the term in order to be considered for Florida residency reclassification.
